6
7 Policy Title Private/Home/Parochial School Special Services Code No. 602.62
8

9
10 Public school districts are required by Federal and State regulations to identify 11 private/parochial school students who may be in need of special education and/or
12 related services. In keeping with these requirements, the Joint School District No. 2
13 contacts private schools within its geographic jurisdiction on an annual basis to inquire
14 about the possible existence of private school students with disabilities who are in 15 residence in the Meridian District.

16
17 Joint School District No. 2 also provides information to private/parochial schools
18 regarding the process such schools can use to make referrals of suspected disabled
19 students in the district for evaluation purposes.

20
21 PROCEDURES:

22
23 Joint School District No. 2 will:

- 24
25 1. Screen and/or evaluate students who are referred.
26
27 2. Provide parents and private/parochial schools (upon receipt of parental consent)
28 with the results of screening/evaluations of referred students.
29
30 3. Provide Speech and/or Language Therapy to students found eligible for such 31 services at a Meridian school site. Speech/Language Therapy, if provided, will 32 be offered during the regular Meridian school day.
33
34 4. Provide one consultation, if requested, to the private/parochial school teacher of 35 a student identified with a disability other than speech/language impaired.
36

37 Joint School District No. 2 will not provide the following services to private/parochial 38 school students:

- 39
40 1. Transportation to and from Speech/Language Therapy.
41
42 2. Occupational or Physical Therapy.
43
44 3. Sign-Language Interpreters.
45
46 4. Augmentative/Alternative Communication and Assistive Technology devices.
47
48 5. One on One Instructional Assistants.
49

50 In keeping with Federal and State requirements, students with disabilities enrolled in 51 Joint School District No. 2 will be provided a free appropriate education with access to 52 the full range of required services.
