9
10 INTENT. The school nutrition program and its personnel shall be under the general
11 supervision and authority of a school nutrition director who reports to the assistant
12 superintendent of support services for the district. State and district officials retain legal 13 oversight responsibility to ensure compliance with state and federal laws, regulations,
14 and guidelines.

15
16 All school nutrition personnel will have adequate pre-service training and regularly
17 participate in professional development activities that address strategies for promoting 18 healthy eating behavior, food safety, and other topics directly relevant to the employee's 19 job duties.

20
21 Cafeteria supervisory staff, assigned by each school principal, will receive appropriate
22 training in how to maintain safe, orderly, and pleasant eating environments.
