

MTCHS E-Sports Team

- Team practices/matches will be held on Wednesdays after school in Room 110/111.
 - Practices will be scheduled once team rosters have been developed.
 - Times will be scheduled once the tournament kicks off.
- All e-sports will be run through the NASEF (National Association of Scholastic E-Sports Federation)
- Overwatch/Rocket League Season Dates
 - Regular Season: October 5 - November 9
 - Playoffs: November 30 - December 14
 - Double Elimination Event: January 16 - February 6
 - Top 4 Final Event: February 16 - 18
- League of Legends Season Dates
 - Swiss Rounds: February 10 - March 14
 - Playoffs: March 23 - April 11
 - Live Finals Event: April 25
- Even if you compete in different games, you are all one MTCHS Dragons e-sports team. All team members will show respect and support for each other.

MTCHS E-Sports Code of Conduct

I _____ commit to the following code of conduct.

1. I will display professionalism and sportsmanship at all times
2. I will respect my teammates, coaches and opponents
3. I will be on time and attend all practices and matches
4. I understand that my status on the team is dependent upon passing all classes
5. I will commit to learning the craft of my game
6. I am aware there are fees to join a league and to go to the BSU championship tournament in April. (If this tournament takes place)

Which games are you interested in:

Overwatch Rocket League League of Legends

Student Signature: _____

Parent/Guardian Signature: _____